

About Language Education in Asia

Background Information

Language Education in Asia (LEiA) is a publication that presents well-researched aspects of language education and learning, innovative, practical approaches to classroom practice, discussion on language education issues in Asia, and reviews of books on research, practice, or issues in language education relevant to the region. Papers can be submitted by researchers, educators, educational leaders, and other language education professionals. All papers are blind-reviewed by members of the Editorial Board. Accepted papers are published on a biannual basis. The first issue of each volume will highlight exceptional papers presented at the annual CamTESOL Conference Series during that publication year. Each volume is online for public viewing and downloading at: <http://www.camtesol.org/publication>

The Language Education in Asia Advisory Board

Since 2011, IDP Education has invited a number of eminent ELT professionals, including several recent CamTESOL plenary speakers, to join an Advisory Board for the Language Education in Asia publication. The Advisory Board will offer advice as the publication is developed and expanded.

Disclaimer

Every effort has been made to ensure that no misleading or inaccurate data, opinions, or statements appear in the Language Education in Asia online publication. Articles included in the publication are the sole responsibility of the contributing authors. The views expressed by the authors do not necessarily reflect the views of the Advisory Board, the Editorial Board, the conference organizers, the hosting institutions, or the various sponsors of the conference series; no responsibility or liability whatsoever is accepted by these groups or institutions regarding the consequences of any information included in the authors' articles.

Notes to Prospective Contributors

The readership of Language Education in Asia is comprised of Asian and expatriate educators as well as those from international institutions. Language Education in Asia encourages the submission of papers presenting innovative approaches of interest to both local and international audiences. The development context of Asian TESOL should be considered; most schools have limited resources and teachers often have to contend with large numbers of students in their classrooms. The Editorial Board takes into account the regional context as well as areas of interest for international participants when selecting papers for publication.

The Language Education in Asia online publication includes four sections:

- Research highlighting ongoing projects in the Asian region, based on and emphasising a practical focus in the discussion and conclusion sections. Maximum 5,000 words.
- Teaching Practice focusing on classroom-based and action research more directly related to the realities of language teaching in the region. Maximum 3,500 words.
- Commentary focusing on well-researched, balanced reports and discussions of current or emerging issues in the Asian region. Maximum 2,000 words.
- Book Reviews of books focusing on research, practice, or current issues relevant to language education in Asia. By invitation.

For more details concerning specific guidelines, formatting, and submission, please refer to the Language Education in Asia page on the CamTESOL website at <http://www.camtesol.org/>. For any questions, please contact the Editor-in-Chief, Ms. Kelly Kimura, at leia@idp.com. Papers for consideration for Volume 6, Issue 1 should be submitted to leia@idp.com by 8 March 2015, and those for Issue 2 should be submitted by 7 June 2015.
